LIFE UNPLUGGED: Fun, Fun, Fun

Nastopajo: Brina Sever, Anja Nadrah, Lana Prošič Rijavec

Friday.

Brina: Hey Lana, have you ever wondered what would life be like without technology?

Lana: What do you mean, like life unplugged?

Brina: Yeah.

Lana: No, I haven't Brina.

Brina: What about you Anja?

Anja: No, I haven't.

At home.

Lana: Hey guys…to be honest I actually wonder what our weekend would look like without technology?

Anja: Good question Lana.

Brina: Well it's getting late, so we better go to sleep.

Anja: Night.

Brina: Night.

Lana: Sleep well.

The next day. (Saturday)

Brina: (yawning) Good morning , oh you guys are already up.

Lana: Yeah and we can't find our phones.

Anja: Did you hide them?

Brina: No! Wait, mine's gone too!

Lana: I think we took life without technology way too sirious. Wait, where's the TV?

A little bit after that.

Anja: You know, we're being too dramatic! We should just go outside.

Brina: Yeah, let's go play in the snow.

Out in the snow.

Anja: What should we do?

Lana: (throws a snowball at Anja)

Anja: Lana!

Brina: Wow, life without phones is so much fun.

A few moments later.

Anja: You know I thought we would be bored by now.

Lana: Yeah, you're right.

Brina: Do you guys remember when we had school online?

Lana: Yeah, why?

Brina: Well, I just thought, we probably wouldn't have school online if there were no computers and phones.

Anja: Wait, you're right!

The night/evening.

Anja: I never thought I would be reading a book at 10pm.

Lana: I know! And it isn't for school.

Brina: Yeah…

Anja: What should we do tomorrow?

Lana: I don't know.

Anja: Maybe we could go to my house?

Brina: Good idea:

The next day. (Sunday)

Anja: Do you guys remember when we talked about online school?

Brina: Yeah, why?

Lana: We disscused we probably wouldn't have had school, right?

Anja: Yeah, but what would school look like without technology?

Brina: Teachers would probably write on the board and teach us from books.

Anja: School would probably be shorter as well.

Lana: Yeah, because we wouldn't be able to watch school videos.

Inside.

Brina: We still have homework for our English class.

Lana: We should do it.

Anja: What's the answer to quastien number 5?

Lana: She went to school.

After they finish.

Brina: Wow, we finished faster than I thought we would.

Anja: Yeah, you're right.

Lana: I think it was because we weren't on our phones.

Anja: Yeah.

Lana: Since we finished with our homework, we can go sledding.

They go sledding outside.

Brina: What should we do now?

Anja: We can play board games.

Brina: Great idea.

While playing.

Anja: I didn't realize there are many things we can do besides being on our phones and tablets.

Lana: Yeah, we can do a lot of things.

Brina: I think I'm gonna have lunch soon, so I better go home.

Lana: I think so too.

Anja: Well, see you guys tomorrow.

Lana: Bye.

Brina: See you.

The next day. (Monday) Before school.

Lana: Hi guys!

Anja: Hi!

Brina: Hi! I found my phone.

Lana: Yeah, I did too.

Anja: We found them all? At the same time?

Lana: Yeah, that's kinda weird.

Brina: I don't know what to do on it though.

Anja: My phone is literally so boring now.

Lana: I know right!

Brina: I have an idea!

Lana: What is it?

Brina: Since we don't know what to do on them, we shouldn't spend so much time on them.

Anja: Well that's not just an idea, that's a good idea.

After school.

Anja: School was so boring today.

Brina: Yeah, probably becouse it's Monday.

Lana: Mondays are really boring.

Anja: Oh, look our bus is coming Brina!

Lana: Yeah and I see my mom too, so I better go.

Brina: Wait for me Anja.

They forget their phones.
