Life unplugged: You'll survive

(Mija is lying on the bed and calling Ema)
(Ema sitting on the sofa)

1. Video call

MIJA: Hi, I was thinking about something today. Listen: what if we had a movie night via video call.
EMA: Ok, but i think it would be better for us...
MIJA: (starts talking over Ema) Yes! I can't wait.I'm going to make some popcorn or ice cream. I'm so excited.
EMA: Stop! Would you please listen to me for a moment?
MIJA: Okay, sorry. I'm listening.
EMA: Why don't we sleep in a tent for one night? We would be completely alone, without phones, computers and all other screens... That would be better for us. We could play board games and talk. Is that okay with you?

MIJA: What!? There will be rats and bears for sure. Disgusting!
EMA: Calm down. We'll have fun. Trust me. The animal is more afraid of you than you are of it.

MIJA: I'm not sure...
EMA: Mija trust me, it will be a lot of fun.
MIJA: Ok... but i'll take some bug spray.
EMA: Take what you want with you.
MIJA: See you... Wait, when and where are we meeting?
EMA: I'll come to your house today at 3 o'clock

MIJA: Alright... See you later alligator.
EMA: (laughs for a moment) Great, bye

2. At Mija's home

(Ema rings the doorbell). (Mija opens the door, the puppy comes in)
MIJA: Hey come for juice. i'm ready. what do you have ready for camping?
(In the hall, Ema puts things on the shelf)
EMA: I want to leave as soon as possible so that we are not caught in the dark
(Mija reminds her that she forgot something)
MIJA: Oh no, I didn't take any bug spray. I'll be right back.
EMA: Okay. I'll wait for you here.
(Mija goes to the basement to get bug spray)
(Mija returns)
MIJA: I came back. Let's drink some juice and go.

EMA: Yeah, yeah

3. In the forest

(They are walking along a forest path)
MIJA: I'm scared. What if we meet a bear.
EMA: Do not be afraid. There are no bears here.
MIJA: I hope so

4.In the forest, setting up a tent

(Mija murmurs something quietly)
EMA: What is wrong? It's fun for me
MIJA: Setting up a tent takes forever
EMA: When we set it up it will be great. We will open a bag of popcorn and play monopoly
MIJA: Ahhhh... Why didn't I take my phone with me?
EMA: Come on... You'll survive one night without your phone
MIJA: Why did I even agree to this camping trip?
EMA: You can find something positive in every thing. And look! The tent is ready.

5. In the tent

MIJA: (Prepare monopoly)
EMA: (Prepare the popcorn)
EMA: Well, I think it's better if we see each other live. Screens are harmful to the eyes. If there were no screens, I bet fewer people would wear glasses. I belive that screens can also give us headaches. So a life without screens would be better for our health. Do you agree with that?
MIJA: Maybe. (3 seconds later) Aaaaaaa! (Flip the popcorn) Did you hear? What if it's a bear?!
EMA: I'm sure it isn't.
MIJA: I will add something about screens. So people should learn to communicate again without phones, computers. We could do this by meeting in the library, talking to each other… I finally understand you. You know, we should meet in the forest and go somewhere for a walk.
EMA: You're right… Let's keep playing. I will beat you.
(play monopoly)

THE END
